PART I: Information Sheet

Publication Ethics for Journal Article

Reviewers Reviewers should:

- Assist in improving the quality of a submitted article by reviewing the manuscript with care, consideration, and objectivity, on time.
- Inform the journal editor in chief of any published or submitted content that is similar to the material under review or any suspected plagiarism.
- Declare any potential conflicts of interest relating to a specific article or author.

Respect the confidentiality of any information or material supplied during the review process.

- Provide a detailed, constructive, and unbiased evaluation promptly on the scientific content of the work.
- Indicate whether the writing is relevant, concise & clear and evaluating the originality and scientific accuracy.
- Maintain the confidentiality of the complete review process.
- Notify the journal editor in chief about any financial or personal conflict of interest and declining to review the manuscript when a possibility of such a conflict exists.
- Notify the journal editor in chief of any ethical concerns in their evaluation of submitted manuscripts; such as any violation of ethical treatment of animal or human subjects or any considerable similarity between the previously published article and any reviewed manuscript.

PART II: Certificate of Consent

I have accurately read the foregoing information. I have had the opportunity to ask questions about it and any questions that I have asked have been answered to my satisfaction. I consent voluntarily to work as a reviewer for the International Design Journal.

I understand that I do not have to take part in any type of work I do not wish to do so and refusing to participate will not affect my position or benefits provided by this Journal. I will still have all the benefits that you would otherwise have. If I have any questions, I may ask now or later, even after the end of publication process I may contact: [Professor Ahmed Waheed Moustafa, Telephone: (+2) 01004968036/ E-mail: faa-design@outlook.com]
