Securing the help of an Interior Designer; Between Aspiration and Necessity

Dr. Abdel Moneim Taha Ali
Ajman University, College of Engineering / Interior Design Department, Ajman / United Arab Emirates.

Abstract
Interior design in our present time has become one of the important ways to determine the status or class of individuals and became a way of making our desires and dream reality. So it has become inefficient to depend upon personal artistic abilities only for implementing the design on interior spaces. Thus, securing an interior designer who has the abilities and experience to follow the new methods becomes a necessity to achieve good designs that reflect satisfaction and interest. Throughout the overall of the executed design which holds in its details and appearances our test, interests, and beliefs. The accurate interior design gives the right picture that reflects many ways we want to show others about ourselves. Interior design, with its elements and components, enhance the aesthetic attitudes of individuals as well as the environmental aspects. These play an effective role in showing economic and social status. New interesting attitudes or methods in planning and implementation of the interior design need an expert to do the job. This study looks into the importance of hiring an interior designer, who is an integral part of the Interior Design job. The Interior designer should be able to establish vital cooperation with many aspects needed. The distinction or uniqueness means a way of explaining the inner personality of an individual or a certain environmental society and their interests. This way of explanation has come as a result of the development of different aspects of features and techniques throughout the times. The job of an interior designer is implemented in two parts, study, and implementation. The aim is to expose the desires of clients; as individuals or society, and their needs according to their interests and values, the interior designer will be able to:- Apply theoretical and practical knowledge to solve real design problems, - Enhance active factors to give a hand in helping and improving the aesthetic qualities of the environmental aspects, - Help to develop his artistic abilities in design, and to gain aesthetic design experiences in factual life serving community needs. Interior design, with its elements and components, considers as one of the environmental features. These features point out the degree and positional status of an individual, as well as a group or society in general. This happens with regard to; economy, behaviors, ambitions, and also desires toward uniqueness. Interior design in our present time has become one of the important ways to determine the status or class of an individual in society and became a way of making our desires and dream reality. Securing the help of an Interior Designer places a strong emphasis on quality assurance and quality control. The quality of Securing the help of an Interior Designer is assessed from different aspects. Evaluation and recommendations based on the assessment. The main goal of the assessment is to modify/update the requirements needed on a continual basis to ensure that the job is of high quality and achieved the desire objectives. In the present investigation, the author investigated the ratio aspect of interior designing and the role of a professional interior designer in reducing the cost of materials and allowing for the appropriate understanding of the needed elements of the design.

Keywords:
Specialized Interior Designer, Designers Associations

Paper received 6th January 2018, accepted 11th March 2018, published 1st of April 2018